

Practical Cake Craft

National 5

What We Have Covered

This term we have been learning about the functional properties of different ingredients. We have concentrated on building our practical skills and have focused on fondant modelling and piping.

October Holidays

Please can you continue developing your knowledge of the functional properties of ingredients through revision and exam questions.

Where possible please continue to build on your practical skills at home through baking and decorating.